DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

CCL IT that is fully IT based company and we have continue our business in our domestic country "BANGLADESH" by following all types of Govt. rules and regulation. For smooth business CCL IT up-to-date by all types of necessary official documents like Trade License, BIN, TIN, TAX, incorporation, Bank Solvency certificate and we also maintain all types of transaction by our company bank account under city bank ltd.

About our customer satisfaction, CCL IT doesn't believe in special discounts and gift offers. But from time to time we have to maintain this system. If any customer believes that discount and gift offer is the main reason for his IT purchase I think maximum times he will miss quality. We will always try to prove our honesty for selecting any IT Goods for my client. As a Muslim or any alt religious sales man or women have to think (Our Prophet Said) what i like best for myself you must select this same thing for your brothers. Everybody know that honesty is the best policy for continue regular business.

We will build the bridge of success in the IT world
